

Donna Carter

Donna Carter is a sought after speaker and the author of two books with curriculum components which are distributed internationally. They are making appearances in Islamic countries, developing, and communist countries and are also being used strategically on U.S. military bases. Donna has traveled widely and is passionate about social justice; especially helping women and children achieve their full potential. Her recent adventures include connecting with the underground church in China, experiencing the catastrophic earthquake in Haiti, and linking Canadian women with young mothers living in abject poverty in El Salvador through Compassion International. Donna and her husband Randy are co-founders of Straight Talk Ministries, a non-profit organization that exists to help people find faith and learn to apply it to everyday life.

Camile Parkman

Camille Parkman is a singer/songwriter, worship leader and speaker from Outlook, SK, whose greatest passion is to worship Jesus and lead others into joyful, intimate worship. Camille is also passionate about the Church fulfilling its mandate to help "the orphans and the widows" of the world, which is what led her to becoming a Compassion artist. She has a special place in her heart for women, and loves to see women grow in their gifts and in the security and confidence that are available to us in Christ. Camille is a trained musician with an ARCT in piano and also has a BA in Music from Briercrest College. Camille often ministers alongside of her husband of 21 years, Rob Parkman, and includes her three wonderful sons (Joshua, Joseph and Micah) in her music ministry whenever possible.

Mandy Ralph

Mandy Ralph is passionate about helping women live their lives as glorious Women of God, leading and serving in their home, community, and world. Through teaching, speaking, discipling, and leadership training, she seeks to help others dig deeper into God's word and in community with one another. With her love of the Bible and background in Archaeology and Biblical Studies she paints vivid pictures of biblical people and events and connects these stories to our lives today. Using storytelling and humour backed by a strong biblical message, she shows that the Bible can be accessible, a living breathing part of our lives. Mandy enjoys her many roles as speaker, teacher, blogger, Ministry spouse, mother to three kids, and messy, journeying woman of God.

Jodi Kozan

Jodi's passion is to bring restoration to audiences of all ages and walks of life. Her personal story involves specific areas of oppression including: Religion vs. Relationship, Fear, Occult dabblings, Teenage rebellion, Abortion aftermath, "Barbie bondage", Being wife #2, among other areas of human wanderings. However, Jodi's message of freedom reaches many hearts because she understands fully that we are all looking for the same thing: to be loved, secure, significant and accepted. Through her authentic heartfelt messages of truth and grace, the Holy Spirit transcends the stories and empowers the hearer to apply the restoration message to their own life. Jodi and Tim have been married for over 20 years and together are proud parents to four amazing daughters.
