

The Gift of Peace of Mind

Most of us understand that we need to plan or update our Will and have it somewhere on our To-Do list. We procrastinate because we think that it will be difficult, time consuming, confusing and expensive. Delaying keeps us from making important decisions that will make a big difference to our families and our legacy and it can become frustrating.

When asked, people stated 'Peace of Mind' as the number one benefit of completing their Will and Estate Plan. The satisfaction of knowing that your goals, values and faith are reflected in your Will can ease your mind and heart. The Christian and Missionary Alliance in Canada has partnered with Advisors with Purpose to help you get that item crossed off your list.

Their trained estate specialists will meet with you by phone, listen to your wishes and hopes for future generations and then provide you with information and a full personalized plan that will help you make the best decisions for you and your family. Because of our partnership with them, this service is free and confidential and there is no obligation to you—and they will never sell you any product.
